MCP Client

Sends query requests to MCP Server.

MCP Server

Receives client requests over a socket and handles query processing.

SSMP Server

Maintains the context of user sessions.

LLM Service

Handles the user query via a unified interface for various LLM models.

Simple MCP Server and Client implementation to handle client query to LLM with context.